

Vol.33 Supplement Contents

Educational Symposium Elementary School Curriculum Research for Inclusive Education from the Viewpoint of TEACCH

Greeting

| | |
|---|---|
| Elementary School Curriculum Research for Inclusive Education from the Viewpoint of TEACCH | 1 |
| Sho ONODERA | |

TEACCH Autism Program

| | |
|---|---|
| Why TEACCH is Necessary for Education of Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders?: The TEACCH Concept | 2 |
| Toshiaki SUWA, Sanae ODAGIRI | |
| Structured Teaching Methods for Children with ASD in General Education Classes: How to Utilize a Structured TEACCHing Approach to School Education | 8 |
| Sanae ODAGIRI, Toshiaki SUWA | |

Subjects

| | |
|---|----|
| Development of Teaching Materials Using Visual Information in Elementary Schools: The Subject of the 169th Waka in the Kokinshu | 12 |
| Mika HASHIMOTO | |
| Developing Extensive Reading Materials to Motivate Elementary School Students to Read Autonomously | 20 |
| Rie KUROE | |
| Preparing for Storm and Flood Damage Worksheet: Social Studies Teaching Materials for 4th Grade Elementary School Students | 28 |
| Hisae TANAMI | |
| Teaching Materials for “Connecting Local Regions to the World”: Learning from Foreign Residents and Multicultural Coexistence in Soja City | 39 |
| Rika TAKENAKA | |
| Developing Applications to Assist in Understanding the Concept of Division: To Realize Individually Optimized Learning | 50 |
| Fumitake HYODO, Mitsumi HASEGAWA, Yayoi SUTANI | |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Development of Visual Programming Teaching Materials in Elementary School Science Education: Supporting Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders in Regular Classes | 58 |
| Kayo WATANABE | |
| Utilization of Time-lapse Movies to Aid Understanding of Spatiotemporal Transitions in Science Education: Teaching the “Development of Medaka Embryos” to Fifth-grade Elementary School Students | 67 |
| Masaki TAKEUCHI, Tomoko KURATA | |
| Development of Animated Teaching Materials for Elementary School Science Classes on the "Water Cycle": Using Regional Materials to Stimulate Children's Interest | 77 |
| Hiroaki NISHIDA | |
| "Free Improvisation" Teaching Materials for Music Making Incorporating the TEACCH Perspective: Toward Children's Self-Discovery and Self-Affirmation | 85 |
| Junko TANAKA | |
| Development of Educational Materials for Watching Noh "Fujito" Set in Kojima, Kurashiki City: Digital Storytelling with Sketches using PowerPoint | 94 |
| Ai NISHIWAKI, Yayoi SUTANI | |
| Teaching Craft Using Scrap Materials: Insights Gained from Practice at a Child Development Support Center | 103 |
| Kimihiro OZAKI | |
| Development of Teaching Materials to Learn about Comfortable Living through a Comparison of Traditional and Modern Dwellings: Using Traditional Houses in Kurashiki City | 114 |
| Yoshikata GODA | |
| Proposal to use the TEACCH Program and Student Character Strengths to support Inclusive Education in School Cooking Classes | 122 |
| Takafumi AOKI | |
| Teaching Floor Exercises in Regular Elementary School Classes with Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders: Developing Materials from a TEACCH Perspective | 135 |
| Daisuke GOTO | |
| A Suggestion for English Language Teaching Materials in Elementary School Incorporating Structured Teaching and Visualization of Pronunciation and Task with ICT | 143 |
| Daisuke SATOH | |
| Comment | 153 |
| Narumi KIIDA | |